

Methodology for New Development Limits

- Include domestic curtilage (i.e. gardens, garages).
- Include new housing developments where completed.
- Include development sites where full or reserved matters permission has been granted (generally exclude outlines).
- Exclude modern farm buildings but include traditional (stone) buildings.
- Include hard standing areas at schools but exclude playing fields.
- Exclude playing field areas where they are on edge of settlement. However for example village greens/green spaces where they are within the built confines.
- Exclude playgrounds unless incorporated within the built confines.
- Include churchyards and graveyards unless they are far removed from the core of the settlement.
- Exclude allotments unless within built confines.